

ASQ-TRAK Practitioner Training

Important Information for Individual Registrations

Ahead of booking a place in an ASQ-TRAK Practitioner Training Workshop, as part of ASQ-TRAK Practitioner Training Program, it is important to read the following information. The program comprises:

- 2-day face-to-face workshop
- 1/2-day workplace practice task
- Optional activities (e.g. booster webinars)
- Ongoing access to resources

This workshop requires a minimum of 10 participants. If you book to attend, but the workshop does not reach the minimum, we will be in touch to discuss available options for alternative workshop dates.

How much does ASQ-TRAK Training cost?

- $2,150 + GST per person.
- If you need to raise a purchase order ahead of time, our supplier details are – University of Melbourne, Level 3, 11 Barry Street, Parkville, VIC 3010 ABN: 84002705224

How is ASQ-TRAK Training delivered?

The workshops are delivered by the STRONG kids, STRONG future team at The University of Melbourne.

The workshop runs for 8 hours each day and covers:

- Predicting and supporting healthy development in early childhood;
- The purpose and process of culturally appropriate developmental monitoring;
- The correct technique for administering, interpreting and communicating results of the ASQ-TRAK; Using the ASQ-TRAK to foster culturally safe developmental monitoring partnerships with families;
- Preparation for completion of a half-day of workplace practice with peer coaching (within six weeks of the workshop), to self-evaluate competency in using the ASQ-TRAK with fidelity.
- The interactive format includes small and large group discussion, analysis of video examples, behaviour rehearsals, and hands-on time with the tool and materials
- Using the ASQ-TRAK to foster culturally safe developmental monitoring partnerships with families;
- Preparation for completion of a half-day of workplace practice with peer coaching (within six weeks of the workshop), to self-evaluate competency in using the ASQ-TRAK with fidelity.
- The interactive format includes small and large group discussion, analysis of video examples, behaviour rehearsals, and hands-on time with the tool and materials.

Who can attend this training?

The training is suitable for anyone with an interest in implementing the ASQ-TRAK in their organisation. This includes practitioners who will be working directly with families, specialists who will be receiving referrals based on the screening outcomes, and managers who will be supporting the implementation at an organisational level.

How is the training recognised?

Participants who complete both the two-day workshop and half-day workplace practice task will be recognised as Certified ASQ-TRAK Practitioners. Participants who attend the workshop but do not complete the workplace practice task, will be recognised as an ASQ-TRAK Supporter.

What is included in the final price?

The training service fee of $2,150 + GST covers a 2-day face to face workshop and includes:

- Accredited ASQ-TRAK Facilitators
- All learning materials (workbooks, resources supporting interactive small group activities)
- Pre-training and post-training support
- Certification for 12 months
- Access to an online resource hub
- Access to Booster Webinars for 12 months
- Access to participate in a Community of Practice for 12 months
- Access to ASQ-TRAK Toolkits during the 2-day Workshop

Exclusions

The final training price does not include:

- Participant travel and accommodation
- Any costs associated with participants' completion of the workplace practice task including access to the ASQ-TRAK Toolkit.

What about cancellations?

At STRONG kids, STRONG future, we understand that circumstances may change, and cancellations may be necessary. To ensure a fair and transparent process, we have established the following cancellation and refund policy for our ASQ-TRAK Practitioner Training Workshops.

All notice periods mentioned in this policy refer to calendar days, including weekends and public holidays observed by The University of Melbourne.

If you need to cancel your workshop booking, you must provide STRONG kids, STRONG future team with written notice, which will take effect when our team receives it.

The refund amount will be determined based on the following table:

Calendar weeks of notice provided to us Calculated as weeks prior to Day 1 of the Workshop	Refund
8 weeks* or more	Full Refund
1 week – 8 weeks and STRONG kids, STRONG future team can rebook your place	Full Refund
1 week – 8 weeks and STRONG kids, STRONG future team cannot rebook your place	50% Refund
1 week or less	No Refund

* The 8-week notice period takes into account the planning for the logistics meeting, which is held at least 6 weeks before the workshop to ensure all arrangements are considered.

Cancellations by STRONG kids, STRONG future

We reserve the right to cancel the ASQ-TRAK Practitioner Training Workshop in the event of exceptional circumstances or unforeseen events beyond our control. In such cases, STRONG kids, STRONG future will notify participant as soon as possible and provide alternatives where appropriate, including different dates for workshop delivery or a full refund. This policy is not intended to exclude or limit any rights which the organisation or participant may have under the Competition and Consumer Act 2010.